

2011 Census Household Form

– text version

This is a text-only version of the Household Form that was used in the 2011 Census

The 2011 Census Household Form is divided into three sections: Census introduction, Instructions for completing the form, and Questions.

The Form also requires a Census Form number to be filled in. The Census Form entry boxes are at the top right corner of the first page. Census Form Number is composed of 4 parts: a 7 digit number, a single digit check letter, a 4 digit number and a single digit check letter.

Census Introduction

Left-hand panel:
Australian Bureau of Statistics: Census
100 years 1911–2011
8 August 2011

Why a Census?

The Census is the only practical way to get information on how many people there are in each part of Australia, what they do and how they live.

Collection authority

The information asked for is collected under the authority of the Census and Statistics Act 1905. Your cooperation is sought in completing this form.

Confidentiality

Under the Census and Statistics Act 1905 the ABS must not release any information you provide in a way which would enable an individual's or household's data to be identified. The one exception is that if you agree at Question 60 then your information will be provided to the National Archives of Australia for release in 99 years time. Visit www.abs.gov.au/census for more information.

Help available

For more information about the Census, including details on each question and how to answer visit: www.abs.gov.au/census or phone the Census Inquiry Service. If you are deaf, hearing or speech impaired phone the National Relay Service. Always quote your Census Form Number shown at the top right of this page.

Instructions for completing the form

What you need to do

- Use this form to record the details of all people (including visitors) who spend the night in your dwelling on Census Night, Tuesday, 9 August 2011.
- Your Collector will return between 10 August and 28 August to collect your form.
- On one form you can record details of six people. If you need more forms, refer to the help available section below.
- If someone in your household wants a separate Census form for privacy reasons, just ask the Collector for a Personal Form and a Privacy Envelope or phone the Census Inquiry Service. Refer to the help available section below.

How to write your answers

- Use a black or blue pen.
- Mark boxes like this: A single dash across a box
- Start numbers in the first box. In the example each digit of 321 is written within each box with number 3 in the first box.
- Write in CAPITAL letters and keep each letter within one box. In the example, each letter of AUSTRALIA is written as a capital letter, and each letter is within one box starting from the first box.
- Use every box in turn and only miss a box to leave a space between words. In the example, the written response PRIMARY SCHOOL TEACHER only has an empty box between the words PRIMARY and

SCHOOL and an empty box between the words SCHOOL and TEACHER.

- If you make a mistake in a mark box, draw a line through the box like this: box is marked with a forward slash.
- Draw a line through the box and rewrite letters like this: each letter of the word TEACHNGING is written inside each box with a horizontal line drawn through the boxes that contain the first N and G to make the correction.
- Please answer all the questions for every person, unless the form asks you not to.
- If you do not know an answer, give the best answer you can.
